

Permanent Mission of Uruguay

Permanent Mission of Portugal

Permanent Mission
of Cape Verde

Permanent Mission
of El Salvador

Permanent Mission of Finland to the United Nations

Franciscans International

A voice at the United Nations

UNITED NATIONS
HUMAN RIGHTS
OFFICE OF THE HIGH COMMISSIONER

Building resilience by ensuring access to water and sanitation for all: Experiences with human rights-based approaches.

11 July 2018 | From 1:15 pm to 2:30 pm (EDT) | Room CR 4, United Nations, New York.

Should you require a UN Ground Pass, please RSVP by July 10 (click here)

WELCOME (AND MODERATOR)

H.E. Mr. Rubén Escalante Hasbún, Permanent Representative of El Salvador

OPENING REMARKS ON BEHALF OF THE GROUP OF FRIENDS OF ESCR

H.E. Mr. Elbio Rosselli, Permanent Representative of Uruguay

H.E. Mr. Francisco Duarte Lopes, Permanent Representative of Portugal

KEY NOTE SPEAKERS

Mr. Andrew Gilmour, Assistant Secretary General for Human Rights

Dr. Léo Heller, Special Rapporteur on the human rights to safe drinking water and sanitation

H.E. Mr. Jose Luis Fialho Rocha, Permanent Representative of Cape Verde

Mr. Seppo Rekolainen, Director of the International Water Cooperation, Government of Finland

Ms. Sandra Carolina Ascencio, Franciscans International on behalf of JPIC - Franciscans El Salvador

This event is organized by the Permanent Missions of Portugal and Uruguay, on behalf of the Group of Friends of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (Argentina, Belgium, the Plurinational State of Bolivia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Cabo Verde, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Ecuador, Finland, France, Italy, Mongolia, Montenegro, Portugal, Spain and Uruguay), the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and Franciscans International, and is co-sponsored by the Permanent Missions of El Salvador, Cape Verde, Finland, and UN Water.